

Youth Gathering Behavior Covenant

In order for this event to be a good experience for everyone, we agree to live together according to the following behavior covenant:

1. In all that we do at the Gathering, we'll keep in mind two things:
  - a. God is present
  - b. We represent both God and our church
2. Each person is expected to participate FULLY in the activities of the Youth Gathering.
3. We will all help and support one another in love in both words and actions.
4. Each person is expected to be in his or her own room immediately following candle power and to be quiet by lights out.
5. The use or possession of alcohol, drugs or tobacco products is prohibited. Any student found using or having these items will be calling their parents for a ride home immediately.
6. Youth should NEVER have anyone of the opposite sex in their hotel room, with the exception of candle power time in counselor's room.
7. Report any illness or personal emergency to your counselor. The hotel operator will assist you if you cannot find your counselor or need additional help. Dial "0" to reach the operator.
8. The registration table provides these services: lost and found, bulletin board for messages, general assistance and workshop sign-ups.
9. If you need to make outside calls during the event, please use one of the hotel pay phones. You cannot make long distance phone calls from your room.
10. Do not leave the hotel. Even while inside, it's wise to stick with one or more friends.
11. Keep your hotel room locked at all times, whether you are in your room, in the hallway, next door or out for some time. Do not leave valuables in your room, either. Keep them with you or put them in the hotel safe.
12. Respect all the Adult counselors, and other people and their property. We are not the only people in the hotel, so we must be sensitive to the needs of other guests. Be sure to show all people the respect they deserve.
13. If you damage hotel property, you pay for it.
14. Please have your bags packed and checked out by the time worship begins. (Please do NOT leave your luggage in the lobby)
